Kyanize

FLOOR FINISH

Adds years to hard woods—brings out the beauty of the grain

Floors subject to hardest wear offer the kind of test that Kyanize Floor Finish gives on.

Easy to apply, right from the can. No mixing. On today, dry tomorrow with the handsomest luster one could desire. Clear varnish, or eight attractive shades from Light Oak to Dark Mahogany. Waterproof absolutely. So tough that grinding heels cannot scratch it white.

For that very reason Kyanize Floor Finish is the ideal varnish for furniture and all woodwork, as well as floors.

HERE'S OUR TRIAL OFFER ON KYANIZE FLOOR FINISH:

CUT OUT THIS ADVERTISEMENT, and pay 15 cents for a good brush to apply the Kyanize. The dealers below will give you free of charge a quarter-pint can of Kyanize Floor Finish, enough to finish a chair or small table. Choice of eight colors.

EAST ALBANY

JOHN T. SINON

A gloom was cast over East Albany Wednesday evening, August 24, when the many friends and relatives of John T. Sinon learned of his death. He has been in failing health for the past two years, during which time all that medical aid could do was done but pernicious anemia had no pity and the end was gradual without suffering.

John Tunney Sinon was born in Vergennes June 17, 1857. At the age of three years he came with his parents to the place that has since been his home. In 1885 he was united in marriage to Anne Mullaney. To them were born five daughters and three sons: Mary, Mrs. F. E. Daniels, East Albany; Fred, Maplewood, N. J.; Margaret, Mrs. P. J. McDermott, New York City; Katherine, Mrs. L. J. Beauregard, St. Johnsbury; John, Elizabeth, Bertha and Frank, are at home. During these years he has devoted himself unsparingly to the interest of home, making home the place where his family most desired to be and the place where strangers as well as his own always received a hearty welcome. As a father, husband and citizen he represented a type all too few. He showed a keen interest in all town affairs, being especially interested in educational matters.

The crowd that filled St. John's church Saturday morning and the profusion of flowers bore silent testimony of the esteem in which he was held. He was assisted by Harry Hughes and John Gallagher were in charge of the funeral. The pall bearers were his six sons, John, Frank, Fred, F. E. Daniels, P. J. McDermott and L. J. Beauregard. Rev. Fr. Jagan assisted by the choir sang high mass and burial was in the Catholic cemetery.

Thank God for the faith that teaches, When the struggles of life are o'er, We shall meet our own, our loved ones And know them all once more.

What matter though life be weary And we tread its path alone, If when the journey is ended In heaven we'll know our own?

And how will it be, I wonder, Shall those who were dearest here Be dearest again in heaven?

Or, think you, when we stand near The throne of a loving father, That his children, every one, Shall seem equally dear to each other Can he like our own?

I wonder, but then, no matter This belongs to the great "To Be" And we'll see all these things more clearly.

In the light of eternity, 'Tis enough to know if we're faithful Till the labor of life is done, In the sweet by and by in heaven We shall meet and know our own.

The John T. Sinon family wish in this way to express their appreciation to friends and neighbors for all the kindness shown during the sickness and death of their dear one.

Save Fuel--Burn Lenox Oil

A superior water-white burning oil, unequalled in illuminating power, safe, clean and reliable. Lenox is a Pennsylvania burning oil, double refined, high in gravity and fire test. Used in lamps, stoves or incubators, it burns with a big white flame which neither chars the wick nor smokes the chimney. It does not emit the disagreeable odors characteristic of cheaper Western oils; and it burns at full flame until the lamp is dry. No other oil is made by the same process and none will give equal satisfaction. Lenox Oil is a burning oil for those who want the best.
